

Global Security Research Institute Working Papers (GWP)

GWP is intended to make the manuscripts related to the research of Global Security Research Institute available to researchers in preliminary form to encourage discussion and suggestions for revision before final publication.

Instructions to authors:

1. Manuscripts must be in English.
2. Manuscripts should be submitted to:
The Editorial Board of GWP
Global Security Research Institute, Keio University
2-15-45 Mita, Minato-ku, Tokyo, 108-8345, Japan
e-mail: gwp@ml.gsec.keio.ac.jp
3. Four (4) hard copies of the manuscript must be submitted. These should be type-written, single-sided, double-spaced, with numbered pages, and with sufficiently large margins of notes, comments, etc.
4. The GWP encourages electronic (PDF) submissions of manuscripts. Electronic submission allows authors with PDF versions of their manuscripts (double-spaced) to submit their documents online. PDF files must be easily readable.
5. The cover page with Microsoft WORD file should show only the manuscript's title, the abstract with no longer than 200 words and the correspondence of the authors.
6. Statistical tables and diagrams should be provided on separate sheets appended to the manuscript. They should be numbered, be referred to in the text, and their position in the text should be clearly marked.
7. Any writing style (for instance, Modern Language Association, Chicago Manual of Style, American Psychological Association, etc.) can be accepted.
